Lyman, Wyoming, Dec. 11.—A very sad event occurred here on Sunday morning, Dec. 3th, in the demise of Dotty Field, one of the fair daughters of Zion. Deceased was fifteen years of age and the only girl in the family. She was the daughter of Joseph Field, who has been if with chronic rheumatism and confined to his home for many weary months. weary months.

The funeral service was held on Wednesday afternoon from the Lyman meeting house, Bishop S. R. Brough presiding. The casket was escorted from the home of the parents of the deceased the home of the parents of the deceased to the meeting house by pupils of the Lyman school. The pall bearers were a number of her young lady classmates. The Bishopric and other speakers eulogized the lovabdle, artless disposition and exalted character of the deceased, the recompense of which was the sure the recompense of which was the sure fulfillment of the promise of a glorious resurrection. Resolutions of respect drafted by a committee of young ladies representing the Lyman school, were read, paying a tribute of praise to the deceased, whose deportment was gentle, comely and ladylike; kind to all, winning the esteem and confidence of all with whom she came in contact.

Six Hundred Persons Witness Jeffries Work With His Brother,

SCHULER MAKES A BIG HIT.

He Gave McLeod a Sleeping Powder In the Third Round-Christy Bests "Kid Smith)"

Between six and seven hundred-prize ring enthusiasts paid to get into the Salt Lake athletic club last night to see Jim Jeffries and "Fat" Schuler. Which one of the one of the two pleased the crowd the more is a matter of some crowd the more is a matter of some doubt.

There is no mistake in stating that "Fat" was a big event all by himself. He is a delicate hittle fellow, who tips the beams at 230 pounds or thereabouts. Last night he bargained to put a 11s-pounder out of the business in seven rounds, and he did it in three, but, of course, the other fellow was willing.

Another interesting number on the program was a bout between Jack Christy and 'Kid Smith of Los Angeles.' They were billed to go ten rounds, but only went three when the Los Angeles wonder's seconds threw up the Sponge.

The work of Champion Jeffries with his brother Jack, was fast from start to finish and served to show off his abilities to the very best advantage. He moved about the ring with winderful speed and his head work was simply marvelous.

He gave an exhibition of his work, standing in an erect position and also in the crouching attitude, which has made him famous. In the latter position his body is practically guarded from almost any kind of a blow. He is well built, and it is little wonder that former champions have gone down before him. Although very swift it was evident to those present that so far as boxing is concerned he is not so clever as Gus Ruhlin.

When Jeffries entered the ring, the crowd greeted him warmly and demanded a speech. Jeffries smilingly walked to the center of the ring and said:

"Gentlemen, I thank you for this reception and want to say walked to the center of the ring and said:

"Gentlemen, I thank you for this reception and want to say that I am ready at all times to meet any man in the world, and all I ask is a month or six weeks' notice, to have time to train."

The go between "Fat" Schuler and Jack McLeod, known as the "Sweet Caporal," was fixed up several days ago when their friends put up $250 a side. The agreement was that "Fat" was to put McLeod out in seven rounds. Schuler resembled an elephant in disguise, but it is difficult to compare McLeod (as he appeared) with any living thing. "Fat" proved to be pretty quick and salifty, and sent McLeod to the floor three times in the first round. In the second round "Fat" simply grunted and the "Sweet Caporal" went down for the count. In the third Schuler landed a good right on the jaw and the little fellow went down and out and had to be carried to his corner.

McLeod would have won the prize had he used different tactics. Had he stood sideways. "Fat" would not have seen him much less hit him.

BIGELOW CARPETS

The Carpets made by this Company have received the highest award wherever exhibited, including Gold Medals at the Paris Exposition, 1878, and at the Centennial, 1876.

Their deserved reputation for excellence of fabric, richness and durability of color, novelty and beauty of design, has led to frequent infringements, and inferior goods have often been palmed off in their stead. For the protection of the public the Company has adopted as a trade-mark the word "BIGELOW," which will be woven (at every repeat of the pattern) in white capitals into the back of the fabric. Customers will therefore have merely to examine the back of a carpet to be certain that they are getting the genuine Bigelow Car-
